Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from In Memoriam: Garret a Hobart, Vice-President of the United States Garret Augustus Hobart was born on a farm near Long Branch, N.J., in 1844, of New England and New Jersey ancestry which ran back to the English and the Dutch. Quickness of perception and comprehension, energy, physical and mental stamina, fidelity to duty, high courage, and an entire veracity of mind were his by inheritance and were ineradicable. It is difficult to believe he ever had a vice to overcome. Young Hobart was educated in the common schools and by his father, until he entered Rutgers College, from which he was graduated in 1863, before he was 19 years of age. After a brief period as an educator he began the study of law in Paterson, N.J., under the tutelage of his father s friend, also of New England stock. Socrates Tuttle, a gentleman of great ability, fine attainments, and splendid character. He was graduated from Mr. Tuttle s office, and admitted to the bar of New Jersey; then began his real career. Mr. Hobart...
