 but I m not sure why; I am a young girl from the hood who made it out. I don t consider myself to have all the answers. My childhood life was hell from as far back as I can remember. By the age of fi ve years old, I had been exposed to homelessness and child molestation. I was placed in foster care and four diff erent living situations (from one home to another), in and out of the court system, exposed to child protection agencies, missing my father who was in prison, and dealing with my mother who was in and out of jail as well as addicted to crack cocaine and men who were no good for her. As far as I can remember, this was my life before kindergarten. I have lived through life s many struggles and persevered through every storm that blew my way. I am writing this story to inspire you. As you are going through your storms, let my stories of triumph and...
