Annotations that are comprehensive, covering not only the meanings of words and phrases peculiar to the period in which the book was written, but explaining any concept or historical event that may not be easily understood or recalled c. Summary at the end of each chapter that is concise yet sufficiently detailed to provide a faithful reproduction of that part of the story d. Critical notes at the end of each chapter that present an analysis of the chapter so that the reader can identify the nuances, allusions, and underlying meanings, and therefore appreciate the story better e. General notes at the end of the book that discuss the character of Helen Keller and the role played by several important people in her life f. Photographs of the author and some memorable people and moments in her life Suggestions for further reading and website links that the reader will find informative and helpful The Story of My Life was the first book by Helen Keller. Published when she was twenty-three, as a series in Ladies Home Journal (1903), the articles were reproduced as a book only a year later. A reflection of Helen s life from an early age till her graduation from Radcliffe College, the early part of the narrative is based on incidents told to the author by her parents and teacher Anne Sullivan. It..
