Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Labour Legislation in Canada: As Existing December 31, 1915 The present volume, which is intended to form what may be termed the base of a series of reports on Labour Legislation in Canada, contains the text of the labour laws of the Dominion and provinces as existing at the end of 1915: It is proposed that the subject shall be kept up to date by annual reports, each with a cumulative index, and that at the end of given periods consolidations similar to the present shall appear in a single volume. The first annual report, that covering the legislation for 1916, appeared in 1917, and the report for the year 1917 was published during the summer of 1918. The material for the present volume has been selected from the latest Revised Statutes, from the subsequent yearly volumes of statutes up to the end of 1915, and in the case of Quebec from the Civil Code and the Code of Civil Procedure. For Alberta it was necessary to use the Consolidated Ordinances of the Northwest Territories, 1898, and the annual volumes of Ordinances up to 1906, as no Revised Statutes of Alberta have been published since the establishment of that province in 1905. The laws are arranged according to the chapter numbers within each year. For convenience, however, amending acts have been consolidated with the statutes which they amend, except in one or two instances where the form of the amendment rendered consolidation impracticable. The words with amendment or with amendments immediately after the chapter number direct attention to the consolidation and a reference to the amending act follows each amended section. The Quebec statutes differ...
