Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .and milk we should all be swamped; therefore, do not do as I am doing, because, if you did, it would spoil the market, and we have to get our market first. After we go out and preach this kind of gospel to the farmers, we have next to take it up with the creamerymen. We are out preaching the gospel of the dairy cow all the while, and we have to preach it to the creamery patrons and to the creamerymen all along the line. I generally tell the farmers there are three kinds of cows: the beef cow that puts the feed on her back, the dairy cow that puts it in the milk pail, and the scrub cow that the Lord only knows where she puts it--not anywhere. Take the dairy cow. I go into the farmers barns sometimes--I believe in practical instruction to farmers. It is easy enough to take a man into a ham that has marble sides and fine stalls and stanchions--we all know these cost money--but the average farmer cannot put in any such stuff; if he could, it would not pay him, for his overhead is too much. Hence we try to give him something practical. I go into a farmer s barn sometimes and look at his cows, and I say, Why these sandwiches V Sandwiches consist of a piece of meat with a slab of something on each side. I call these cows fertilizer sandwiches, but...
