Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Marconi Calindas (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After a small earthquake, 6-year old Jojo and his 8-year old sister Malaya are enjoying listening to Daddy s story about the Singkil princess of the Philippines. The princess was brave and unafraid as she and the prince dance together to find their way around the falling trees of a tremor. But Daddy seems uncomfortable when Jojo says he dreams of being a princess too. How should Daddy respond? In an age of hateful bullying and advances for LGBT and gender nonconforming people, there s no easy way to understand what these struggles mean unless you put a face to them. What better face is there to look at than that of an innocent child who is full of wonder at the world? In the end, the story shows that whatever issues children need to deal with, they ll be okay as long as they have loving and supportive adults in their corner. A portion of the proceeds will be used to fund and distribute the companion short film.
