In November of 2009, during a lucid interval in a hospital room, Stephanie Bell was urgently writing on her blanket with her right index finger. When given a pen and paper to decipher what she was writing, she repeatedly scrawled that sentence, superimposing it on one spot on the paper. Stephanie proclaimed Jesus on this earth for as long as she was able, using every ounce of strength that she drew from the Lord. Her High School Graduation Speech inspired people across the state. My 30th Birthday is instructive; its poignancy, inescapable. This is a portrait of a young woman s vulnerability, yet courage and unwavering faith in Jesus Christ. She left an array of information about herself at.
