

My Brother Charlie

By Holly Robinson Peete and Ryan Elizabeth Peete. Illustrated by Shane W. Evans

Scholastic, 2010. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 2012 Winner of the Dolly Gray Children's Literature Award. Callie is very proud of her brother Charlie. He's good at so many things -- swimming, playing the piano, running fast. And Charlie has a special way with animals, especially their dog, Harriett. But sometimes Charlie gets very quiet. His words get locked inside him, and he seems far away. Then, when Callie and Charlie start to play, Charlie is back to laughing, holding hands, having fun. Charlie is like any other boy -- and he has autism. In this story, told from a sister's point of view, we meet a family whose oldest son teaches them important lessons about togetherness, hope, tolerance, and love. Holly Robinson Peete, bestselling author, actress, and national autism spokesperson, collaborates with her daughter, Ryan, to write this uplifting book based on their experiences with Holly's son (and Ryan's brother), RJ, who has autism. "PreSchool-Grade 2 -- Twins Callie and Charlie have a lot in common, but they are also very different: Charlie has autism. Callie narrates the story, describing what autism is and exploring the issues that come along with it. The theme is of love, patience, and acceptance...."
