Reviews

An incredibly great book with perfect and lucid answers. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you question me).

On this Committee's report the Council, in October of the same year, appointed a special Committee with powers to prepare estimates and a prospectus; to submit them to the University Court; and to send them with a form of subscription to each member of the Council. The Court and the Senatus gave their general approval to the scheme prepared by the Committee, and ultimately no fewer than 950 promises of subscription were received from graduates and alumni of the University. A Committee of Management was formed, consisting of six members elected by the University Court, six by the Senatus, and twelve by the General Council, along with the President of the Student's Representative Council, and five other persons co-opted by the Committee. The Principal is Chairman, Mr. Charles Macgregor, Secretary, and Mr. James W. Garden, Treasurer. The more important offices of convener of the Editorial Sub-Committee and of the Business Sub-Committee have been entrusted to Mr. Alexander Mackie and Mr. W. Stewart Thomson. Mr. Mackie will be assisted by Mr. Robert Anderson and Mr. W. Keith Leask. The other members of his committee are Professors Grierson, Arthur Thomson and Baillie; Mr. P. J. Anderson, Mr. Stewart Thomson, and Miss Williamina Rait. Such have been the deliberate and careful origins of The Aberdeen University Review, the first number of which is now submitted to the subscribers.
