

Conversations with Jesus (Paperback)

By Robert L Flaherty

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .John reports conversations Jesus had with other people in a way that invites us to be full participants with them. Jesus had conversations with many people. Jesus and his conversation partners talk past each other because they want to take Jesus words literally while he speaks figuratively. Five conversations are the focus of this study. Jesus and Nicodemus talk about being born from above or being born again. Jesus engages a woman of Samaria in a discussion about living water. After he heals a blind man, Jesus talks with him about sight and blindness. Standing at the graveside of one of his friends, Jesus and the dead man s sister talk about resurrection and life. And after Jesus crucifixion and resurrection and Peter s denials, Jesus calls and commissions Peter while they talk about love and service. While these conversations are interesting in and of themselves, they are especially interesting as we become involved in them. This study guide leads to participation through Lectio Divina, which is a spiritual practice developed in the monasteries. Literally...
