The composition of the Court thus admitted of three different combinations, consisting of those two Courts below which were not parties to the original judgment. It was abolished on the 1st November, 1875, by the Judicature Acts, which transferred its jurisdiction to the present Court of Appeal. See Judicature Act, 1873, s. 18 (4); Judicature Act, 1874, s. 2. interest and exchange the bills. The old bills had been delivered to them for a special purpose inconsistent with lien. The fair inference from the transaction was that the new bills were intended to be handed to Burn that he might deposit them in the tin box, and the accidental circumstance that by reason of his illness these particular bills happened to remain in the hands of the bankers for a longer period than usual did not affect the case. The transaction was very similar to the deposit at a bank for safe custody of plate in a locked chest, upon which there clearly is no lien. Charge on One of Several Properties comprised in Deed. In the case of Wylde v. Radford, which came before Kindersley, V.C., in 1863, a customer deposited with his bankers a deed of conveyance, including two distinct properties, giving them a memorandum charging one of the properties only as security for his general balance, and it was held that, as the charge created by the deposit was specifically limited to one of the properties only, the bankers could...
